

MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 19.

LOCAL MATTERS.

For the season warmer, light to fresh southerly winds, except brisk on the coast, fair weather, followed by occasional light rains.

EXCITEMENT.—A week or two ago a merchant doing business on King street made an assignment to an Alexandrian, since which time the insolvent party has given vent to suspicions he has entertained against the propriety of the person he had designated to wind up his affairs. This morning the insolvent (having become more confirmed in his suspicions) had the assignee arraigned before a magistrate to answer the charge of misappropriation of goods. During the trial the case of the plaintiff and defendant became involved in an angry dispute which was so warm that they eyed each other menacingly while in the halls of justice, where neither seemed disposed to back the peace, but when they had gained the outer air and reached the corner of King and Royal streets they engaged in a regular "cat-fight," and began pummeling each other's heads. The Marquis of Queensberry's rule was not observed. At this juncture the defendant in the case gave rather a loud expression to his feeling of alarm, and in a few seconds every person who happened to be within two or three squares of the scene of the combat was attracted together and formed a solid mass around the amateur pugilists until the police arrived and took both in charge. The fight created the greatest excitement, some supposing a murder had been committed and others that a mad dog was on the rampage or that some individual was running amuck.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge James Keith presiding.—G. C. Hall vs. C. L. Arnold; action of debt; jury and verdict for plaintiff for $20. Administration upon the estate of H. L. Smith, deceased, was committed to his widow Lucy C. Stuart.

John Powell vs. Jennie E. Powell; order for withdrawal of certain moneys from bank. M. Waterman vs. L. Bill, Jr. & Co., on petition of Louis Brager; action to recover money on outstanding notes; jury and verdict for Brager.

An order was entered suspending the judgment of this court entered in January in the case of Fleming vs. City Council of Alexandria (the hay scales case) till the first of June, in order to allow the case to be taken to the Court of Appeals.

City Council of Alexandria vs. sureties of J. P. Coleman; dismissed; agreed.

The dockets were called, cases set and court adjourned till tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Several of the railroad suits were continued.

DISTURBANCES.—Daniel Mason, colored, was arrested by Officer Brenner on Saturday night charged with shooting at Frank Jackson, colored, with intent to kill. The shooting took place at the corner of Fairfax and Princess street, during a row between the two men. This morning Mason was fined $20.

On Saturday night last, Smith with several officers surrounded the premises of Geo. Hamilton, colored, on north Henry street and arrested a number of colored men caught playing "crap." All were taken to the station house where Mayor Dorman this morning fined them for gaming.

A fight took place on north Fairfax street, last night, between a white and a colored woman during which both had handfuls of hair pulled from their heads and faces scratched. The fight was witnessed by a number of persons.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—The Boston Journal writes of Emmet who will appear here next Wednesday night in Fritz, our Cousin German. "Emmet never seems to grow old. His step is as light, his voice as gay and his heart as young as ever. In Fritz he has a partially suiting him. He is jolly and happy, he is sorrowful and downcast; but at all times he is the friend of all and all are his friends. The songs that he sings are no small addition to the enjoyment of the audience. Pleading in their melody, they are all more captivating by the cherry manner of their rendering."

HANDSOME PORTRAITS.—Two handsome portraits, one of John S. Beach, esq., Clerk of the Courts, the other of Capt. George A. Ashbach, of the Alexandria Light Infantry, have been painted by the talented artist, Mr. F. M. Dawson, for the Bachelor's Club, of which both gentlemen are members, to adorn the elegant rooms of that club. That of Mr. Beach is an excellent likeness of him as he is now; that of Capt. Ashbach, painted from an old photograph, is what he was when younger. Both are portraits and do much credit to the skill and taste of the artist.

HAD TO PAY UP.—A young man of this city who recently became dissatisfied with the knights of labor organization and withdrew from the assembly here, somewhat in tears for dues, etc., last week went to Washington where he had secured a contract to do some work. A few days ago the walking delegate of the assembly here while in his rounds discovered his quondam frater thereupon he pounced upon him and by threats, etc., compelled him to pay up all back scores.

His BIRTHDAY.—Friday last was the birthday of Mr. John Nightingill, the faithful janitor of the Market building, and who for a long time was a member of the police force, and on that day Auditor Price received the following:

"The police send greetings unto you and your office for having so venerable a janitor in this building, to-day being his 152d birthday, he having been born in Westmoreland county on the 16th day of March, 1736. (?)"

THE COUPON SUITS.—The suits against those who have tendered coupons in payment for their State taxes will be heard on Wednesday in the Circuit Court. It is said that the defendants will demand separate cases in each case, but it is not known whether they will or not. It is also said that the legality of the law imposing a tax of $1.00 on each attorney who defends these suits will be tested.

SAFE.—Capt. Shirley King, of the schooner "Ella C," for whose safety a pilot was ordered here on Saturday last expressed fears, having seen the vessel in distress during the recent storm, that arriving here without sustaining serious injury, having hidden out the cargo.

SHIPMENT OF BRICKS.—The large three masted schooner "Island City," arrived here yesterday and will be loaded with bricks by Messrs. O'Neil & Corbett, for Savannah, Ga. This will be the first of the large shipments of bricks ever made from this port, as over 100,000 and 150,000 will constitute the vessel's cargo.

Stakeman Frazier, while coupling cars at the Virginia Midland railroad depot in Alexandria on Friday night, had one of his legs badly crushed.

Daniel L. Max, an old colored man of Manassas, who, it is said, was about one hundred years old, died there on Tuesday night.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with three prisoners and three lockers at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Geo. Hamilton, colored, arrested by Lieut. Smith and officers Price, Hayes, Davis and McQueen, charged with gaming, was fined $5, and Wm. Epps, Jas. Morman, J. M. Bryant, Abe Douglass, Jno. Laws, J. S. Woody, David Green, James Jones and Robert Wilson, also colored, arrested on the same charge, were fined $1 each. Wm. Jackson was discharged.

Hester Mankin, arrested by officer Young for being drunk and disorderly, forfeited $5 collaterals.

Wm. Payne, colored, arrested by officers Taylor and Grady for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $1.50.

Wm. Washington, Richard Beach and Samuel Mason, also colored, arrested by officers McQueen, Davis, Price and Hayes for disorderly conduct, were fined $3 each.

Daniel Mason, colored, arrested by officer Brenner for an assault on Frank Jackson, was fined $20.

Jas. Albert, arrested by officer Price for disorderly conduct, forfeited $3 collaterals, and Frank Joseph on the same charge, was discharged.

PERSONAL.—Miss Marietta Spear, of Baltimore, is visiting the family of Mr. Jas. S. Douglas, on Cameron street.

Among those in attendance upon the session of the Circuit Court to-day were Gen. W. H. Payne, Col. Staples, and Messrs. H. O. Cloughton and E. E. Meredith.

Judge N. B. Meade, who has been confined to his room by illness for some time past, was out to-day.

Mr. F. A. Reed was taken suddenly ill yesterday but is much better to-day and expects to be about again to-morrow.

Mr. A. C. Harmon, whose illness was mentioned on Saturday is about again.

The condition of Mr. Adolphus Diedel, who has been ill for several days past continues unchanged.

Miss Florence and Maggie Elgin, of Loudoun county, are visiting Mrs. J. T. Cox, on upper King street.

COMPROMISED AND DISMISSED.—The suit of W. E. Lyles vs. the Virginia Midland Railroad to recover damages sustained in the yard of the company, in this city, several years ago, in which the plaintiff had his ribs broken, has been compromised. The case has been tried three times, resulting in a hung jury in each trial.

The suit of the City Council of Alexandria vs. the sureties of J. P. Coleman, late Superintendent of Police, was this morning dismissed in the Circuit Court.

BUILDING NOTES.—Mr. James McQueen will in a few days commence the erection of a brick store, 40x65 feet, at the corner of Gibson and Alfred streets. Mr. Geo. Phillips has been given the contract for the brick work.

Mr. Wm. Gibson to-day commenced tearing down the old brick buildings on lower King street near Lee preparatory to the erection of new machine works for Messrs. J. & A. Aitchison.

DEAD.—Mr. Lewis Hopkins, sr., formerly of this city, whose illness has heretofore been mentioned, died at his home in Washington at an early hour this morning. Mr. Hopkins for a number of years was an Adams' Express messenger on the Midland road, and had a large circle of friends and acquaintances who will regret to learn of his death.

SUICIDE.—This evening a colored man named Sandy Mason went into the store of Mr. John Grilly, on north Fairfax street, and called for whisky. On being refused he became abusive and approached Mr. Grilly in a threatening manner whereupon the latter drew a pistol and fired at him. Mason then became less violent and later went to the Mayor's office and swore out a warrant for Mr. Grilly's arrest. Mason bears a bad character.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

This has been the first spring-like day of the season.

A bright light was seen in the county last night in the direction of Convalescent Camp but it is believed to have been burning brush.

Some apprehension is felt here concerning Mr. Julius Penn who went to Baltimore seeking employment about two weeks ago and has not been heard of since.

The treasurer's and auditor's offices of the R. & A. R. Co. were removed from Richmond to Washington on Saturday evening and the Alexandrians employed in them are home again, much to their delight.

Midland railroad employees who arrived here to-day say that a colored brakeman on the N. & W. R. R. was run over and killed yesterday near Lynchburg and so badly mutilated that his remains were taken from the track in a shroud.

The funeral of the late Mr. Joseph L. Grigg took place from his late residence, on Cameron street, this evening, and was largely attended. Washington Lodge of Masters and Leo Camp, Confederate Veterans, of both of which organizations the deceased was a member, escorted the remains to the grave.

During the session of the Criminal Court in Washington on Saturday Assistant District Attorney A. A. Lipscomb, formerly of this city, was directed to take his seat by Judge Montgomery, who said the Court had on several occasions noticed his impertinence. Confusion followed and the marshal was called and ordered to seat Mr. Lipscomb.

Mrs. W. H. Pleasants, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Virginia, desires to meet ladies of this Union at their room over Mr. Paff's store, to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Virginia and Cleveland.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, Governor of Virginia, arrived at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, Saturday morning. He went on to eat dinner with the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, at Delmonico's. Gov. Lee has recently reduced his long flowing beard to a moustache and imperial, and looks ten years younger.

The Governor said to a World reporter that he had no other mission but to attend the dinner mentioned above. The Virginia debt question was adjusting itself and would not cut any figure in the next campaign.

"The Virginia democrats," he said in reply to a question, "are mostly in favor of Mr. Cleveland's re-nomination. I have heard no other candidate mentioned. The Virginia delegation will probably support Mr. Cleveland. There is a wide divergence of opinion in our State on the tariff question. Many of our people think that the Northern States have grown rich under a protective tariff, and now that industries are just getting under way in Virginia they would like to have the benefit of protection a little while, on the principle that what is 'saucer for the goose is saucer for the gander.' There is also some disappointment over the democratic party's treatment of the internal revenue question. Our people would like to see the internal revenue taxes wiped out completely, and especially the tobacco tax. Tobacco may not be a necessity, but it is about the only luxury the poor man has, and it should be made as cheap as possible. Tobacco-growers in the South cannot understand why it should be taxed any more than cabbage or wheat. Mr. Blaine was shrewd enough to send a message from Paris on the heels of Mr. Cleveland's message, advocating a total repeal of the tobacco tax. Mr. Sherman, in a speech in the Senate very soon afterwards, took similar ground. Extracts from both Blaine's and Sherman's remarks on this subject have been scattered broadcast through our tobacco-growing counties. They have necessarily had some effect. Many have said: 'Well, if Mr. Blaine is in favor of repealing the tobacco tax and Mr. Cleveland is not, I shall vote for Blaine.' I believe Mr. Cleveland can carry Virginia next fall; but you must remember that Mr. Cleveland only carried it in 1884 by 6,000. Then we had six of the ten Congressmen, but the republicans have seven out of the ten. But Mr. Cleveland is as strong, if not stronger, to-day in Virginia than he was in 1884, and he should carry the State. I may say that there will be no division of the democratic party in the South so long as the colored vote is cast practically solid for the republican party. Blaine would poll a large vote in Virginia. Sherman would not run well in 1888. We should have no trouble in defeating him, in my judgment. I believe Mahone is for Sherman and will probably try to deliver the Virginia delegation to him. There are good many republicans in Virginia who dislike Mahone, and will vote with the democrats rather than advance Mahone or any of his schemes."
